Be it ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Gloucester City, in the County of Camden and State of New Jersey, that:

§ 68-1. Declaration of emergency.

An emergency is declared to exist in the City of Gloucester City with respect to the outdoor storage of abandoned, discarded and unattended iceboxes, refrigerators, freezers and other similar appliances, containers or articles which have airtight doors or locks which may not be released for opening from the inside.

§ 68-2. Abandonment of refrigerators without removal of doors or locks prohibited.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to leave outside of any building or dwelling in a place accessible to children any abandoned, discarded and unattended icebox, refrigerator, freezer or any similar article, appliance or container which has an airtight door or lock which may not be released for opening from the inside thereof, unless such person, firm or corporation shall have first removed the door or snap lock from such icebox, refrigerator, freezer or similar article, appliance or container.

§ 68-3. Violations and penalties.¹

Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction therefor before the Judge of the Municipal Court of Gloucester City, be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500.) or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than ninety (90) days, or both, in the discretion of the aforesaid Judge.
